DCC: MAJOR WEB PLANS

Broadband programme announced

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

SELECTED areas near Axminster and Honiton are part of "a major" satellite broadband programme, Devon County Council (DCC) has announced.

Formally known as the Rural Connection, the £1million programme will boost internet services in areas with very slow speeds or no broadband at all - so-called not-spots.

It will run alongside the wider Connecting Devon and Somerset programme, which aims to deliver superfast broadband to at least 85 per cent of homes and businesses.

A Rural Connection information meeting has already been staged in Dunksell, and another will be held in the Axminster area on a date to be announced.

The programme caters for households as well as businesses, but it is on a first-come first-served basis — and total capacity is limited to about 1,050 installations.

Devon and Somerset county councils made a joint bid for EU funding earlier this year, which is matched by the private sector.

DCC's cabinet member for economy, enterprise and employment, councillor Will Mumford, said: "This is about ensuring that our businesses can compete on a level playing field, reducing the isolation of residents in remote areas and improving their access to services."

Parts of the rural hinterlands of Axminster, Honiton, South Molton, Tiverton, Cullompton along with Wheddon Cross on Exmoor are covered by the programme.

The package includes free installation of satellite broadband which — in tech speak — offers speeds of up to 10 Mbps.

The DCC statement didn't list the hinterlands covered, but residents and businesses can find out more and check if they are eligible by calling 0844 8740602.

It is understood that Shute and Dunksell are two of the locations included.

Eligibility can also be checked by using the postcode search facility online at www.toowaydirect.com/regional-offers/devon-somerset-rural-connection/.

Tooway Direct has been chosen to deliver the programme, and information will be available online at www.toowaydirect.com.

Thefts from three cars

AXMINSTER police are urging motorists not to leave bags and other items on display in parked vehicles.

In less than a week, three cars were broken into and items stolen.

The first break-in happened some time between Thursday, November 17th and noon the following Sunday in the Uplyme area.

A quantity of cash, kept in the car's ashtray, was stolen.

Two more vehicles, parked in Hawkchurch and Raymonds Hill respectively, were broken into on Thursday, November 24th and items were taken.

Hedgehog's Silver in tourist awards

HEDGEHOG Corner, near Axminster, claimed a silver medal at this year's Devon Tourism Awards (Bed and Breakfast and Guest Accommodation of the Year category).

The bed-and-breakfast establishment, just off the A35 on the B3165 Lyme road, was piped to the gold medal by Larkbeare Grange, Talaton.

Many categories saw three entrants battle it out, but compere Judi Spiers said: "There are just two finalists for this award, as these stood out head and shoulders above other entries."

She conveyed the judges' opinions of Hedgehog Corner by announcing: "This is an exceptionally well run business and one that does credit to the industry in the South West."

"If all our hospitality businesses were run with this level of care, attention and love no-one would bother venturing abroad."

The award ceremony took place at Sandy Park in Exeter on Wednesday, November 23rd.

Hedgehog Corner owner Joy Raymond and manager Tara Dare attended along with Axminster Tourist Information Centre manager Sarah Crook.

Unfortunately, Joy lost her voice after the event, so could not speak to Pulman's View.

But she e-mailed a statement saying: "For me this was all about Tara."

◆ ROSIE Bates (Visit Devon), Joy Raymond, Judi Spiers (BBC Radio Devon), Tara Dare and Christopher Mills (South West Water), the sponsor of the category

"She has been taking various hospitality qualifications here at Hedgehog Corner."

"I entered to see how far we could get in this rigorous and long, drawn-out selection process."

"I wanted to show her that with persistence, drive and determination anything is possible – even for a small business such as ours.

"I am particularly grateful for the kind words of support from other local accommodation businesses."

Sarah said "It was a wonderful celebration of excellence and a great reward for terrific hard work."

"We really enjoyed ourselves."

Silver award for explorers

THREE explorer scouts from Ottery joined forces with a colleague from Beer to complete a three-day expedition in October, gaining the Duke of Edinburgh Silver award as a result.

Joe Carr, 17, Alex Lavallin, 16, Alex McNamee, 16, from Ottery St Mary Explorers, along with Emily-Keziah Green, 16, from Beer Explorers, undertook a gruelling 60km walk, camping for two nights in the process.

June Murrell, award administrator for East Devon Explorers, explained: "For the expedition section, the explorers need to plan, train for and complete an unaccompanied, self-reliant expedition with an agreed aim."

The weather was not kind, with two days of very heavy rain — which couldn't dampen the youngsters' enthusiasm.

Their final task was to invite an audience and give a detailed presentation of the expedition.

Explorer leader John Green commented: "This is a great achievement for all those involved. The D of E Award requires a huge amount of self motivation and commitment which the explorers have demonstrated."

"Scouting provides a great deal of opportunities for young people and nowadays we also offer the opportunity to undertake the D of E award scheme as part of their time in scouting. These types of awards offer different types of experience for young people."

Ottery St Mary Scout group has a membership of approximately 120 young people aged 6-18. Those interested can e-mail explorers@otteryscouts.org.uk for more information.

REPORT IS FINALISED

Controversial EDDC report goes live

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@findlenews.co.uk

A CONTROVERSIAL report has been finalised and made publicly available by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

As previously reported, the EDDC Scrutiny and Overview Committee report - officially named Task and Finish Forum - Improving Ward Member Interaction With Planning Final Report September 2011 - appeared briefly on the EDDC website before being pulled off.

Council officials said it was pulled off because it was merely a draft posted by mistake.

There was more controversy when a member of the public, who wished to have a copy of the report, had a Freedom of Information Act request denied by EDDC.

At that stage, Pulman's View stepped in and published its copy of the controversial report online.

Draft or not, the first version could have been described as a generous dose of friendly fire as the EDDC committee slated aspects of the EDDC planning department.

Much of the criticism remains in the final report, but claims of "poor customer service" and "a conflict of interest" have been omitted and the respective sentences re-worded.

The draft version, for example, said: "That the Interim Development Manager addresses the issue of poor customer care by issuing training and guidance where necessary."

The final version, however, reads: "That the Interim Development Manager addresses the issue of improving customer care by issuing training and guidance where necessary."

Another sentence in the draft read: "There is at times a conflict of interest and the Head of Economy is asked to refrain from offering advice unless it is specifically requested"

The final version, though, says: "From a planning perspective it is acknowledged that a range of material considerations will need to be taken into account, and the chairman of the Development Committee will need to ensure that the scope of the advice is clear and members have been fully appraised of material points."

The report author, councillor Peter N Bowden said: "The Task and Finish Forum (TaFF) gave me and other members an opportunity to gain a much better understanding of how the planning service works, the information that is available through our website and the many improvements that have been made in recent years.

"I believe that in the vast majority of cases an excellent service is provided to councillors, the community and applicants."

"However there have been a small number of cases where councillors have not been as involved as they should have been."

"This was a result of poor communication."

"The TaFF has worked well with officers to find solutions to the concerns raised and I am happy that we have found workable solutions that when implemented will help us to further improve the planning service as part of our drive for continuous improvement."

"The aim of the TaFF was to ensure that members play a full part in the planning process by engaging in a two-way dialogue with planning officers from start to finish."

"That will make what is already acknowledged as a very good service even better."

The final version is available at: http://www.eastdevon.gov.uk/cabinet_agenda_301111.pdf.

The draft version is available online under the relevant link at www.axminster-today.co.uk.

Webster's art model moved

AXMINSTER Arts' 3D Webster frontage model has been moved to the town's railway station café.

The aim is to provide a colourful mural in front of the dilapidated Webster complex's main entrance, and the model was originally exhibited in the arts café.

Axminster Arts revealed in October that local artist Steve Fisher had been recruited to design the model and lead the project.

As previously reported, Axminster Arts has the permission of the dilapidated building's owner to carry out the project, which needed to raise another £2,000 back in October.

Tim Leat of Axminster Arts said: "This is an ideal chance to not only view [the model] but also to chat to Steve - who runs the [station] café — about his ideas and the considerable research into Axminster's history he has already undertaken and which he plans to portray on the mural."

The model might be moved to another venue later this year, before returning to the arts café during January, by which time Mr Leat hopes to be able to report that all funding is in place for work to commence.

The plan is to involve members of the public through a series of open workshops where anyone, regardless of ability, can turn up and paint part of the designed.

The station café is open seven days a week from 7am-3pm Mondays to Saturdays and from 8.30am-3pm on Sundays.

Anyone interested in joining the project or making a donation can visit the arts cafe or contact Mr Leat on 01297 35187, 01404 812228 or by emailing Norlett@aol.com.

Plans for 50 more homes

RESIDENTS against development in Feniton have been dealt another blow after a second application for 50 homes was submitted.

The application, put forward by Wainhomes (South West) Holdings Ltd, proposes to build 50 homes with associated roads, sewers, landscaping, parking and garages as well as provision of allotments, playing space and community building on land near Louvigny Close, off Station Road.

This application comes as East Devon District Council (EDDC) will meet on Tuesday, December 6th to discuss plans for 120 homes on land opposite The Signals.

The application, from Strategic Land Partnerships has been recommended for refusal by the development management committee.

Residents are now being urged to attend the December 6th meeting, where members of the public will be given an opportunity to voice their concerns over the application.

Hundreds of residents flooded EDDC with objections to the plans and it is expected the same will be done for the new application.

Feniton Parish Council is holding a meeting tomorrow (Wednesday, November 30th) at 8pm in the village hall and is calling on all residents to attend.

Andy Thompson, of the Fight For Feniton's Future campaign, said: "The time has come to get behind our campaign as an application for 50 houses behind Louvigny Close has been made.

"Be in no doubt, the developers have got Feniton in their sights.

"If villagers don't want these houses they have to say no.

"We need to support the parish council, attend meetings and offer them support.

"Support can also be made at www.thefiff.info."

Strikes close schools

SCHOOLS across east Devon will be closed tomorrow, (Wednesday, November 30th) following decisions by unions to strike over Government changes to public-sector pension schemes.

Public-sector unions argue that the modifications will mean they will be forced to work longer for less pay.

Local schools currently scheduled to close on Wednesday are as follows: Colyton Primary, Ottery St Mary Primary, The King's School, Feniton C of E Primary, Awliscombe C of E Primary, Offwell C of E Primary, Farway C of E Primary, Branscombe C of E Primary, Honiton Primary and Mill Water Community School.

A full list can be found on the Devon County Council website www.devonschoolclosures.info.

A statement released by the Axe Valley Learning Community (AVLC), comprising all headteachers in Axe Valley Schools, reads: "A headteacher's first concern must always be the safety and well-being of pupils and the maintenance of order and discipline."

To make alternative arrangements, all headteachers have made every effort to find out in advance those members of staff who intend to strike.

Although union members are not obliged to declare their intention to strike, the AVLC statement said: "The fact that many have already done so is a clear tribute to their professionalism."

Teaching unions are not the only ones who have voted for industrial action.

Several public-sector unions, including Unite and Unison, have also voted to walk out.

Workers from Devon County Council are not obliged to reveal whether or not they will be striking so it is not yet known to what extent other council services will be disrupted.

A spokesman for EDDC said: "At this stage we are not in a position to know how strong support for the strike will be among union members but we will ensure that any service disruption is kept to a minimum."

Waste and recycling collections will not be disrupted because they are handled by external contractors.

Centre floor to be sprung?

A HONITON councillor is calling for the town council to keep their options open and consider installing a sprung dance floor in the proposed community centre.

Councillors met this month to discuss and resolve recommendations made by the community complex project group.

Councillor Vivienne Ash raised concerns about removing plans for sprung flooring, which she feels is important for dance groups who may use the complex.

Councillor Marianne Harman added: "I am very concerned about the lack of staging and not having sprung flooring may limit its possible use by community groups."

It was suggested that the council consult with dance groups in the area to find out if sprung flooring would be of use to them.

Pulman's View spoke to Lucie-Grace Wellsman, co-owner of East Devon Dance, who runs dance classes across east Devon, including in Honiton at the sports centre.

She said: "Nobody has been in touch with us, despite the fact that we would be very likely to consider using the facilities at the proposed complex. Our preference would be for a sprung floor as it is better for our students and helps prevent injuries."

Work hub will not be piloted

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@iindlenews.co.uk

A WORK hub project will not be piloted in Axminster, Devon County Council (DCC) has announced — and it may not get off the ground at all in the town.

It was in December last year that DCC announced it would gauge interest for work hubs in six towns — Axminster, Barnstaple, Totnes, Newton Abbot, Ilfracombe and Exmouth.

Drop-in events were organised in each town and the message was also spread in other ways, including an online survey.

A DCC spokesperson explained the concept by saying: “Work hubs make smart use of space, serving more businesses than a traditional office by allowing people to book a ‘hot desk’ closer to home as and when they need it.

“This offers a more flexible working pattern for people in rural areas and market towns, staggering the rush hour and providing a better work-life balance and enhancing networking opportunities.”

A drop-in information event was staged in Axminster on January 6th at Axe Valley Community College.

But the interest expressed wasn't big enough to qualify the town for a pilot project.

A DCC spokesperson said on Wednesday, November 23rd: “The meeting in Axminster was part of our research to look at demand in the six market towns identified as probably having most demand for work hubs across Devon.

“Totnes and Barnstaple came through as demonstrating most demand, hence their choice for pilot activity.

“Once we have these hubs off the ground we will be looking to roll-out the network across Devon and, hopefully, including Axminster if someone wishes to come forward with a proposal in due course.”

More information about the project is available online at www.devonworkhubs.co.uk.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

EAST Devon churches are looking forward to the Christmas season when many will be holding Christingle services in support of the Children's Society.

A recent feature added to these services is a collection of toys for the long-term sick children in the Children's Hospices of the south west. Further details can be found at www.chsw.org.uk or by calling 01275 866600.

Still on Christmas plans, St Paul's Church, Honiton, opens its charity Christmas card shop until December, 15th — Monday to Friday 10am-4pm and to 12.30pm on Saturdays.

News from Christian Aid — the remaining lunches at the United Reformed Church at Cross Street, Seaton, will be taking place next on Friday, December 2nd from 12 noon to 1.30pm — price £3.50.

Honiton Deanery Synod has just held its last meeting for 2011 at Uplyme Church when the parishes were invited to speak about examples of fresh expressions of church.

Synod was also introduced to the Deanery website and a number of Mission Community sites by the Rector of Uplyme, the Revd Gavin Tyte.

Synod heard that Canon Richard Saunders will be retiring from Gittisham in the new year, after 27 years there. Honiton's Rector, the Revd Prebendary Sue Roberts, is also standing down as Rural Dean at the end of 2011.

Synod welcomed its new honorary Treasurer Simon Byworth from Axminster and noted that the Deanery Budget for 2012 showed no change from 2011.

Reports were given of the Diocesan Synod and the link with the Dubai Chaplaincy in the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf.

The next Honiton Deanery Synod, open to all, is on Tuesday, March 6th 2012 at 7.30pm in Kilmington Hall, when the chairman of Exeter Diocesan board of finance will be speaking, about church finances and needs.

Rev Linda Chester Methodist

Minister writes this week: “This is the time of the year when twinkling lights abound in shops, streets and homes.

“Thousands of tiny lights shine out across the country as people decorate for Christmas. Light is so much part of our everyday life that we tend to take it for granted.

“It takes a power cut, or traffic lights not working at a busy road junction, for us to be fully appreciative of how much we depend on light; it enables us to clearly see the way forward, without coming to harm.

“All of our churches are now busy preparing for Christmas, it's the season of Advent. We focus on Jesus Christ coming into the world as a light shining out in the darkness.

“Through Jesus' life and teaching we see the best path to follow, a path with direction and meaning, bringing hope, peace and fulfillment to our lives. Wonder how we would manage without light in our daily lives?

“In a similar way, the Light of Christ is life changing.”

Man injured in pub brawl

POLICE say up to 12 people were involved in an Axminster pub brawl in the early hours of Sunday, November 20th.

Officers were called to the Red Lion and a constabulary spokesman said: "Police attended the premises at around 1.20am following a report of a fight involving up to a dozen people.

"It was between two separate groups and during the incident a local man, aged 19 years, sustained an injury to his nose which required hospital treatment."

The spokesman added that the man was discharged following treatment, and added: "No arrests were made and inquiries are continuing."

Pupils visit top museum

ART and photography students from Ax Valley Community College sixth form went to the Victoria and Albert Museum in London on Tuesday, November 15th.

They looked at a post-modernism exhibition and carried out extensive research into the prints and drawing rooms, using original artwork by photographers such as David Bailey and artists such as Arthur Rackham.

A college spokesman said: "This was a unique opportunity for students to handle and experience original and expensive pieces of artwork in an historic setting and they all thoroughly enjoyed their day."

The museum specialises in art and design.

Muppets master magic of muffins

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

FIVE local primary schools took part in this year's Technology Enterprise Event organised by Ax Valley Community College in Axminster.

The teams had to make muffins, design and make packaging and present a sales plan.

The competition was won by the Muffin Muppets team from St Mary's Primary School in Axminster.

Bridget Bennett, of Ax Valley Community College, said before the event began: "The aim of the day is for pupils to work as a company in teams of six to design, make, package and market a muffin product which could be used to help promote a charity of their choice."

"Pupils will gain an awareness of how products are designed, manufactured and marketed in a business situation and in order to be successful, they need to work well as a team."

"The event is run over a whole day. After a short briefing, the teams work together to form their company, allocate roles and make design decisions, then divide up into three pairs to carry out the tasks of muffin production, package production, marketing and accounting."

Participating schools were Kilminster, Membury, All Saints, St Mary's and Axminster.

The event was held on Thursday, November 17th.

First meeting for Guides

THE inaugural meeting of Girlguiding UK's Otter and Sid Valley Senior Section took place on Monday, November 14th at Coleridge Pre-School from 7.15pm to 9pm.

Nine girls, aged between 14 and 18, attended.

The new leaders, Sophie Chalmers and Lucy Lowe, began by talking to the girls about Senior Section and what opportunities there were to get involved with the unit.

After creating a collage, they discussed what they would like to do in the unit and what they thought they would gain from being a member.

The unit is open to all between the ages of 14 and 25. The last meeting was on Monday, November 28th and they will initially meet every other week.

Anyone interested in joining should contact Sophie Chalmers on 01404 850032 or Lucy Lowe on 01404 811862.

£300 for children at auction of holiday

A LUXURY east Devon foodie break for four has been auctioned to raise £300 for Children in Need.

Ottery-based businesses Mazzard Farm Holiday Cottages, the Good Life Deli, Escot Park and Joshua's Harvest Store, along with The Holt restaurant and bar, put together the holiday package.

It highlights what east Devon is becoming increasingly famous for – warm hospitality as well as great food and drink.

Ruud Jansen Venneboer, owner of Mazzard Farm Holiday Cottages, was delighted with the result.

He said: "Every so often you need to step back from your day-to-day business and make an attempt to help someone else.

"Thanks to our friends the Holt, the Good Life, Escot and Joshua's, we were able to pull together this fantastic offer and we're delighted to write this £300 cheque and send it to Pudsey."

Angels with frozen peas

◆ SPECIAL delivery: Lucy Piper and Sarah Burchett with another order of groceries waiting to be dispatched

HONITON businesswomen Lucy Piper and Sarah Burchett have started a new enterprise called Shopping Angels

This small, friendly and caring team's aim is to provide a reliable grocery shopping service in Honiton and its surrounding areas.

"We came up with the idea while working as an occupational therapist and a mobile hairdresser, where we would see older people and adults with disabilities on a daily basis, some of whom have difficulty with getting their weekly groceries," said Sarah.

"Although some people are lucky enough to have someone to rely on, others are not."

But the service is more than just collecting shopping.

"Apart from shopping and putting it away for them, we are on hand to have a friendly chat, which is often appreciated as we understand the importance of social interaction.

"At times people may need help with shopping on a long or short-term basis, for example after an operation, which Shopping Angels are more than happy to accommodate as every person's situation is different," explained Lucy.

Sarah added: "Families also appreciate Shopping Angels as we are trustworthy and reliable.

"Some families live away from their relatives and at times find it hard to visit. Therefore they can have peace of mind that, not only are Shopping Angels providing a reliable grocery service but they are ensuring that their relatives are managing."

"Shopping Angels can point them in the right direction with other services in the area when needed."

For more information on Shopping Angels call Lucy on 01404 861411 or Sarah on 01404 861606.

Award for heating firm

HONITON-BASED underfloor heating company Nu-Heat has been given a Green Apple Award for its part in Exmouth Community College's (ECC) educational DVD Ecologic, which won a gold award at an event in the House of Commons.

Ecologic, first conceived by ECC geography teacher Dan Enyon and the then East Devon District Council education ranger James Chubb, was made by local production company Pangaea and featured three ECC students discussing renewable energy with various suppliers, businesses and householders across the region.

"The awards event was a great opportunity to celebrate a fantastic achievement that showcases how forward-thinking the South West is in the area of renewable energy," said Nu-Heat's PR and Marketing Executive Portia McMenemy.

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER

Passengers for Tesco, please go to Gate Three

EDITOR – It's not a store. It's a terminal – Seaton's new airport.

I'm told that during the last war it was the intention of our American allies to build an airport in this part of the Axe Valley.

Well, it's taken 66 years to get the terminal building – a coffee bar to your left, duty-free over here and light snacks over there.

Ian Dyer is in charge of customers and Emma Webster exercises biometric passport control over the building.

But alas Seaton in its planning has got it wrong again.

No one told the council that we ain't got no aeroplanes.

Never mind, thanks to Tesco they will turn it into a Number 1 Superstore

So in 60 years' time – who knows? It could become an airport but in the meantime they will ensure that Seaton is flying high so all that is left for me to request is a large illuminated sign for passengers and Tesco saying "welcome to Seaton".

This sad, self-serving modern world of ours

EDITOR – I have just read your Star Letter (November 15th).

I too remember as a child clearing snow from the pavement in front of my parents' house. It was fun and good not to slip.

Today our self-serving attitude is to sue everyone in the courts if we have had an accident if we can blame someone else.

This is why pavements are not cleared in front of businesses — because there will always be someone out there ready to sue business owners. I would love to clear snow but will not because of this.

Life nowadays is sad. We all get what we want and in doing so we have lost our people-friendly communication skills. Please let's become people-friendly again

Pet that can change the life of a disabled person

EDITOR – If you are looking for that special festive gift, why not consider adopting a puppy to support the national charity Canine Partners, which provides specially trained assistance dogs to people with disabilities.

For just £1 a week your gift recipient will follow the journey of a puppy's initial training to become a canine partner right through into their partnership with one of our disabled applicants.

The Adopt a Puppy scheme, supported by Purina PetCare, allows supporters of Canine Partners a greater insight into the difference their donations can make to the life of a person with disabilities.

The gift recipient will receive a puppy pack containing a photo of the chosen puppy, a personal certificate, a cuddly jacketed toy dog and regular updates on its adventures.

For further information on Adopting a Puppy this Christmas or helping Canine Partners in any way, please call 08456 580480 or visit www.caninepartners.org.uk.

Thanks to Samaritans of the A3052

EDITOR – My wife and I would like to express our gratitude to the people who helped us on Saturday, November 19th when we had a car accident on the A3052, east of Branscombe Cross.

In particular we would like to thank those who took control of the situation, extricating us from the overturned car

We would also like to thank the couple who sat us in their car, along with the young woman firefighter who continually checked on our welfare, the paramedics and the policeman who stayed with us until the car was removed and saw us home safe and sound.

It reinforces the fact of how many good people there are out there, all of whom helped without a second thought.

We thank you all again very much.

A peaceful Hallowe'en

EDITOR – Many thanks to all those who assisted once again with our annual Autumnal Safety Campaign, part of which was to highlight the dangers of unsupervised activities such as trick or treat on Hallowe'en.

My thanks go to schools, parents, the police, Devon Youth Service and shops.

I have just had the statistics from the police in relation to October 31st and there were only five reported incidents of anti-social behaviour across the whole of east Devon. None of these involved complaints relating to Hallowe'en-type issues.

Hopefully, we can maintain this in future years because it will certainly help to improve public confidence, especially among the older members of the community.

£2,500 for local groups

IN a presentation evening on Saturday, November 19th at the George Inn, Chardstock, a total of £2,500 was presented by the Chardstock Street Fayre Committee to three main beneficiaries.

Chosen in February of this year, the beneficiaries included Chardstock Park Trust and Chardstock Community Hall Trust, who both received £650, and the national charity Shelterbox, which was presented with £500.

The rest of the money was distributed among Chardstock Youth Club (£370), St John Ambulance (£130), the Chardstock Christmas Presents and Tree Fund (£150) and Chard Rugby Club U15s and U16s (£50).

TONY JACKSON

Bird decline strikes chord

MY recent comments concerning the severe decline in garden birds and the associated increase in sparrowhawks and magpies certainly struck a chord with several readers.

Gill and John Crowe tell me that they have been undertaking a daily garden bird count for the British Trust for Ornithology (BTO) for many years and are horrified by the drop in small bird numbers over the past two years.

A pair of sparrowhawks visit their garden daily and there are magpies, crows, jays, buzzards and grey squirrels in the fields bordering their property. In 2009 the bird count for November 8th to 15th was 31 birds of 13 different species, but for the same week of this year was 12 birds of eight species.

Surely it is time, say the Crowes, for conservation groups to realise that, if action is not taken to control the number of predators, song birds will be a thing of the past.

Vivienne Coates from Axminster has also noted the decline in garden birds and believes that cats have a part to play.

She is also concerned by the increasing number of gulls in the town which create mess and noise. A sensible cull, she suggests, would be in order.

I would be interested to hear the views of any other readers who have noticed a decline in garden birds and who, perhaps, can also offer some explanations for their loss.

The RSPB seems to have gone strangely quiet on this issue, though doubtless they will emerge to tell us that raptors, predators and cats have absolutely nothing to do with the loss of song birds and that's it's all down to farmers and their pesticides!

Incidentally, on another bird note, I've just heard that a brood of mallard ducklings have hatched on the wetland at Seaton. There is, I suppose, a faint chance they might survive the cold weather if it arrives, but doubtless they'll be picked off by crows and foxes.

Now here is something different. Story-teller Clare Viner, who has been gathering local stories from the Blackdown Hills area for several years, now wants to assemble them into a book.

"I'd love to hear from anyone who can tell me a tale from the Blackdowns. Whether it's a complete story or a fragment, or just an interesting saying. It could be an ancient myth, or it might be something remembered from more recent times and which I could work into the book," she says.

The book will include a map to enable readers to visit the places where the stories were born, and when it is complete it will be available from local bookshops and other outlets. Clare can be contacted on 01395 577016 or by email at clareviner@google.co.uk.

Now, how would you like to take part in creating a new wood? On Saturday, December 3rd you can join the Dorset Wildlife Trust and Dorset Countryside team to help make a new woodland by planting 500 native trees which will be added to Horselyynch Plantation near Weymouth. Oak, ash, hazel and hawthorn will all be planted in mitigation for land lost during the construction of the Weymouth Relief Road and the Lorton Meadows nature reserve will double in size, linking to Lodmoor Nature Reserve and Country Park.

The Community Tree Planting event will be from 10am to 3pm at the northern end of Horselyynch Plantation, known locally as Teddy Bear Woods. All equipment, including tools, gloves and, of course, trees, will be provided. The nearest parking is in Louviers Road, near Top club, Littlemoor, and simply follow the arrows to the planting site. The site can also be accessed on foot from Southdown Avenue, following the footpath to Lodmoor/Southdown fields and up the hill towards Lodmoor. If you want to know more about the event call Samantha Dallimore on 01305 816546.

Language is evolving, not static

EM Chapman is being a little precious in his or her defence of the English language (Letters, November 22nd).

There are relatively few original English words left in our lexicon, with words from all corners of the Earth having helped to enrich our language over time.

Surely the strength of our language is in its multi-lingual texture, its flexibility and its subtlety.

If the Americans are exporting some of their distinctive idiomatic language to us, we should not forget that it was primarily the English who exported it to America in the first place.

Incidentally, 60 years ago I was a "train" spotter, not a railway spotter.

Will Tesco really give us new life?

EDITOR – Having digested the so-called consultations and meetings over the past few years, Seaton has finally come to the first phase of the regeneration, for example Tesco opening, being completed.

I sit and wonder what Seaton has done to deserve this.

Sandra Semple has pointed out that Tesco is bigger than expected and that there will be fewer houses.

I would like to know what was the point of inviting residents to give their views on the different suggestion and plans put forward by consultants if they are completely ignored.

Paul Diviani said he would work with the people of Seaton to decide which was the best way to develop the Harbour Road site, and to come up with a plan that would kickstart the redevelopment of the town and create an exciting future.

I think I speak for many in the town when I ask: Can you tell me how Tesco will benefit the retail sector in Seaton to the extent of exciting people and will the future of Seaton be exciting?

Let's all be honest, will Tesco regenerate Seaton? Will the retailers who have built up a family business be able to compete with giants like Tesco?

Let's all hope that the retailers in town benefit from the arrival of Tesco. We can only wait and see.

Remember 15th of November

EDITOR – Tuesday, November 15th became a day the residents of West Hill had long been waiting for. It proved to be the day when at last common sense and reason prevailed.

Since November 4th, 2009, when "the man from Blue Cedar" first announced his company's proposal to desecrate an important part of the village we have been in turmoil. This speculative development in the guise of fulfilling some local need by building 55 houses on a Green Field site north of Eastfield became an issue. Since then its residents have had to contend with the threat of a major development on their doorstep and in the process had to endure being labelled "nimbys" and "out of touch with local needs".

Months of meetings between planners and local officials led us to feel further alienated and abandoned by officials in EDDC.

The residents' quickly formed an active group to tackle Blue Cedar's proposal and were able to raise an effective campaign of objection, but only with the help and support of the entire village community of West Hill that included latterly West Hill Residents' Association.

Thank goodness it took David Prentis, the planning appeal inspector, to point out the obvious to the local planners of East Devon. He highlighted amongst many other things in his conclusions that Blue Cedar's proposal was unsustainable and therefore dismissed the appeal.

To our community, may we say a hearty 'thank you' for your support over a matter of such deep concern that has troubled us for so long.

Majority wants a referendum on EU

EDITOR – Regarding your news item concerning the Tiverton and Honiton MP, Neil Parish, and his voting for a referendum on the EU.

Readers will know that polls consistently show the majority want a referendum on the EU but the "elite" think they know better and are dead set against it, so full marks to Mr Parish, and for an ex-MEP I was pleasantly surprised.

On one point, however, he is misguided. It is not possible to repatriate powers given away to this dreadful organisation. He would or should know that.

Our other east Devon MP, Hugo Swire, voted against a referendum – in other words against the wishes of most people, but then for those of us in the know this was only to be expected.

Information about Uncle Albert please

EDITOR – I am researching my family tree, which is the Bishenden family, and have found the my great uncle, Albert Bishenden, moved to Ottery St Mary some time in the 1930s.

He was married to a Crothall and had a son in 1937 called James Jimmy Bishenden.

I believe Albert was a retained firefighter and passed away in 1980.

I am desperate to trace any living relatives as I think he remarried and had a daughter.

I would love a photo or information about him and his family.

I have been unable to trace Jimmy and therefore am asking your readers if they are able to help.

Readers can contact me directly.
Many thanks.

Merry Christmas
from Pulman's View

A table is for life not just for Christmas

At the very heart of Christmas is the warmth of the family coming together with friends for this wonderful annual celebration. For many people the focal point of this time spent together is the Christmas day dinner with everyone around the dining table.

Alexander Paul Antiques, specialise in family farmhouse dining tables, and they report that this is an especially busy time of year with demand being high for this particular piece of furniture. For all sorts of different reasons many people buy a new table just before Christmas ready for the big day. Maybe the old one is just too small for the ever growing family, or maybe a house move with greater space permits a more generous sized table. What ever the reason, you want to be well prepared for when all your friends and family arrive.

Alexander Paul Antiques offer all readers a warm welcome to their showrooms at Penny Bridges Nr Honiton where they have one of the largest selections of farmhouse tables in the West country and plenty of free parking.

"If we don't have the table you want" says Charles Taylor "we will certainly be able to find it for you".

Alexander Paul Antiques have a wide range of other pieces of French country furniture including coffee tables and serving tables as well as some stunning mahogany furniture, both English and French.

Alexander Paul Antiques

have a "home view" service. This allows customers to see a particular piece of furniture in situ in their own home before they commit to buying. For some people this removes any uncertainty they might have as to whether it will fit or not and so gives them confidence to make the right decision and buy.

Town gets into festive swing thanks to £2k

LYME Regis' Town Council is investing £2,000 of a Business Support grant in a campaign to bring Christmas shoppers to the town and support the local traders through a series of late night shopping opportunities in the run-up to Christmas.

Shops and businesses throughout the town are being encouraged to stay open until 8pm on the four Fridays leading up to Christmas Eve on December 2nd, 9th, 16th and 23rd.

Rikey Austin, vice-chairman of the council's tourism and advertising sub-committee, says: "With the wonderful energy and ideas coming from our local businesses and an unbeatable setting we think we're at the beginning of a Christmas tradition that will grow and grow."

Adding that: "It has been decided to invest in generating interest in the town during the winter months which are traditionally so difficult for local businesses."

As well as local shops staying open the initiative will embrace a series of additional activities with a Christmas Market at the Town Mill from December 9th to 11th and a Christmas Tree Festival at the Baptist Church from December 13th to the 17th.

Culminating in traditional carols being sung around the Christmas tree on Friday, December 23rd.

How Colin fell for a cinema icon

MY WEEK WITH MARILYN (15)

IN the summer of 1956, Marilyn Monroe came to Pinewood Studios in Buckinghamshire to shoot the Prince And The Showgirl with Sir Laurence Olivier.

It was a fascinating collaboration – the most famous woman in the world and the greatest stage actor of a generation.

What could possibly go wrong?

The on-set diary and memoir of third assistant director Colin Clark revealed that Monroe consistently turned up late on set, driving Olivier to the brink of madness as the production fell woefully behind schedule.

While fellow cast members, including Dame Sybil Thorndike looked on, the director and his leading lady clashed, and Clark, just 23 at the time and fresh out of Oxford, became a go-between, winning the trust of the emotionally fragile starlet.

My Week With Marilyn crafts Clark's recollections of that turbulent period into a bittersweet drama, laden with the cream of British acting talent.

Adrian Hodges's script glistens with polished one-liners and provides Michelle Williams with a show-stopping role as a cinematic icon that richly deserves Oscar recognition.

Colin Clark (Eddie Redmayne) hails from privileged stock and thanks to family connections, he secures a position working as assistant to Sir Laurence Olivier (Kenneth Branagh).

From the moment Marilyn (Michelle Williams) arrives, Olivier is smitten. On set, his desire turns to frustration as Marilyn fluffs takes and turns up late.

So Olivier asks Colin to win his leading lady's trust and get her to set on time. While Colin falls under Marilyn's spell, the screen siren argues with her husband, writer Arthur Miller (Dougray Scott).

My Week With Marilyn is a valentine to the art of film-making and to a woman whose radiance on the screen concealed destructive demons.

The West Country Letting Agent

Frank Property is now launching a new fixed price rentals service.

Our customers have told us of their frustrations with renting their properties out; namely with hidden fees; one customer renting a 3 bedroom house in Lyme Regis, couldn't believe all the incremental charges she had to pay; she told us:

'In addition to the one month rent for a rent-only service; I had to pay an up-front administration fee; then another fee which was well over £100 for a tenancy agreement to be drawn up; then also another charge of a similar amount for an inventory. The supposed one month rent was more like two months rent – I was so frustrated' (Mrs M from Lyme Regis).

Frank Property is stripping out all the 'hidden charges' and making life easier for ALL of our customers during these difficult economic times; offering two service levels, that are guaranteed to be better value than any local agency; importantly, without any compromise to service; delivered with a real 'personal touch'.

The rates are simple; if a customer wants a tenant find service only the cost is 75% of the first months rent. With no hidden charges for tenancy agreement creation; inventory or any administration charges whatsoever.

The other is a fully managed service for 9% of the monthly rate; again without any of the typical hidden or incremental charges.

Alexander Way, Frank Property's lettings manager, said, 'When doing our research, we found so many customers frustrated, upset even, by the extra charges that were being levied. We simply wanted to lay a smoother path; one where our customer will walk away feeling like they got great value for money, and the feeling that we went that extra mile for them'.

Frank Property will promise to:

Create an appealing and well photographed property description
Advertise your property in the local press

Feature your property on the highly acclaimed website
(frankproperty.co.uk)

Feature your property on a number of internet portals
(findaproperty.co.uk; Zoopla; google, facebook)

Thoroughly reference and credit check any potential tenants

And if you decide to use our fully managed service, and in the event that anything goes wrong, we promise to use the very best trade's people to ensure things are resolved speedily and cost-effectively, treating your hard earned money as if it were our own

Put Frank Property to the test and see how much you could save.

Mercedes claim M-Class SUV improvements

GERMAN manufacturer Mercedes-Benz is claiming improvements in both performance and efficiency with the AMG version of its M-Class SUV.

The ML63 AMG uses its latest 5.5-litre turbocharged V8 engine to offer a giant 518bhp and 516lb.ft of torque (with an optional upgrade to 549bhp and 561lb.ft), resulting in performance figures of 4.8 seconds for the 0-62mph sprint and a limited top speed of 155mph.

Despite the remarkable performance, the ML63 AMG is claimed to offer a 28% increase in overall efficiency, with fuel economy of 23.9mpg combined and CO2 emissions of 276g/km. These figures are achieved with the help of a stop/start system, offered for the first time on the M-Class AMG.

It also features active anti-roll bars for the first time, designed to keep the car as level as possible when cornering and deliver driving dynamics to match the straight line performance.

The ML63 AMG will reach the UK in Spring 2012.

■ A British team has crossed North America, from New York to Los Angeles, in an XF 2.2 diesel averaging an incredible 62.9 mpg over 2,884-miles - making it the most efficient Jaguar ever created.

Finishing in Los Angeles, California on Monday, November 14, the journey - the equivalent of travelling from London to the Sahara - took in 11 states, three time zones and eight days. Yet the XF only required four stops for fuel - its peak economy of 67 mpg being achieved on the penultimate day of the trip.

Paul Alcock, XF project manager, Jaguar Cars, who was present throughout the journey, commented: 'This project was designed primarily to test the potential economy of the XF 2.2.

The incredible figures achieved by the car were accomplished through making every element of the new XF as efficient as possible - from its aerodynamics to its four-cylinder 2.2-litre diesel engine linked to an eight-speed gearbox.

The whole XF team is incredibly proud of what's been achieved and it's a graphic demonstration of the strength, engineering integrity and efficiency of the car.

'Driven by independent testers, David and Alexander Madgwick, the XF 2.2 was a scrupulously standard UK registered, right-hand drive vehicle.

In the course of the coast to coast adventure, the car maintained an average speed of 53 mph incorporating a multitude of real-life scenarios including the busy roads exiting New York and, towards the end of the trip, entering Los Angeles, road works, high winds and a climb to 7,275 feet above sea level.

■ Seat UK is offering customers a new range of pay as you go warranty options.

Operated by Mondial Assistance, one of the UK's largest motor manufacturer warranty providers, the scheme brings Seat owners greater flexibility when choosing a policy to best suit their financial and motoring needs.

Customers now have the luxury of purchasing their Seat Extended Warranty cover direct online. Owners can specify the level of cover they need, with a variable claim excess and the potential to include roadside assistance if required.

However, Extended Warranty for Seat customers offers an affordable cover, with policy costs starting as low as £17 per month giving protection from the unexpected motoring costs.

The flexibility of the 'pay as you go' service means that customers can choose a product to meet their specific needs.

AXE VALLEY PEDALLERS

◆ ALISTAIR COPE: He will continue to be involved with the cycling club he founded

Alistair out of the saddle as chairman

ALISTAIR COPE is about to release his grip on the Axe Valley Pedallers (AVP) chairmanship handlebars.

The Seaton cycling profile played a pivotal role in bringing Tour of Britain spin-off The Great Tour to the town.

Alistair has decided to step down after seven years at the helm, but will continue his involvement with the club he founded.

He feels he has taken the club as far as he can as chairman, so is stepping down and leaving the committee for other members to take AVP forward.

Alistair said: "I have so enjoyed my time at AVP and I've made so many friends over the years.

"I look forward to taking part in future club rides and will do all that I can to support the club."

"I am passionate about cycling and also about the county of Devon and will do all that I can to raise the profile of cycling where I live. In addition, I want to do more for charity and create further opportunities for cyclists to raise funds for good causes."

Alistair started the club after a weekend ride to the Eden Project and came back inspired to encourage people to cycle and have fun. He circumnavigated the UK coastline last year as Part of The Great Tour.

EAST DEVON SLOT RACING

Racers on right track

MAKING its debut on Sunday, November 20th, was the East Devon Slot Racing Club's (EDSRC) answer to Le Mans and the Mille Miglia.

The Honiton 200 Team Endurance, which saw the winning car covering approximately 32 miles (scale distance equivalent to 1,000 miles), was completed by slot racers from Kent, Wiltshire, Somerset and Devon.

The race took place on EDSRC's new, purpose-built, five-lane track and lasted 250 minutes.

The home teams came first and second ahead of the Becks Hill/Larkfield team from Kent, with Chivenor and Four-Lane Black Top from Swindon lasting the race distance.

The club has been meeting for 20 years, with ages ranging from 14 to over 70 with regular members travelling from Torquay, Newton Abbot, Exeter, Wellington and Taunton.

Meets take place every Friday at the St John Ambulance Hall, Haydon's Park, Honiton.

New members are always welcome and EDSRC's website (www.edsrc.co.uk) provides further information.

Alternatively, contact founding member Dave Stevens on 01404 811187 or email daves.winterslane@hotmail.co.uk

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

Across the line, hand in hand

ANOTHER cracking day dawned in the autumn of wonders ensuring perfect conditions for the Bicton Blister and Bicton Lite.

If ever there was a reason to haul yourself out of bed early on a Sunday, these races were it. As usual there were hills a plenty, but lack of rain meant the usual 2ft deep pond was a mere puddle. Even the toads formed a picket line demanding more water.

Youngsters Andrew Watson and Josh Coates performed superbly in the five-mile Lite event, finishing second and third in 31.34 and 32.32.

Andrew was the winner of the junior race with Josh 2nd. Teresa Coates was the first of the older generation home, 41st in 47.20.

It's good to see Jackie Rooke running again; she ran all the way with Janet Woodward and they skipped across the line holding hands, joint 73rd in 55.48.

It was a red-letter day for the men as AVR were second overall in the 10-mile Blister team event, where the first four runners count.

Alex Todd finished seventh in 1:07:40. The race was won by Jim Cole from Tavistock in an incredible 1:01:15.

In a rare race excursion, Sam Anning did it for the oldies, finishing 28th and first over 55 in 1:13:10, with Paul Johns 65th in 1:19:50.

Graham Newton overtook Tim Sibley and Robin Britton to finish 76th and second over 60 in 1:21:22.

Tim overhauled Robin just before the finish to be 87th in 1:22:26, with Robin 88th and third over-60 in 1:22:30.

Eleanor Wood had another great run; she was 105th and second over-50 lady in 1:23:49; Mark Hilder 123rd, 1:25:30; Geoff Woodward 156th, 1:27:24 and Ian Clements 174th, 1:29:37.

Adele Foxwell was 193rd in 1:30:56. Wayne Toozee was 211th, 1:32:33; Nicky Ingarfield 213th, 1:32:51; Martin Croad 216th, 1:33:14.

Andy Hitchcock finished 254th, 1:35:48 with Dave Mutter 272nd, 1:37:45. At six miles Chris Driver was just behind Eleanor Wood when disaster struck and he pulled a muscle. He limped home in 1:41:12, 312nd, just ahead of Gavin Warren 315th in 1:41:26. Young James Sibley is gaining experience at the senior level and had a great race finishing 362nd in 1:48:16.

Despite a classical dive at the second water station, Claire Moles had a great run to finish 365th in 1:49:47. Beth Sibley also performed well to finish 411th in 2:08:41.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

INITIATED by the much-missed Wayne Piper with the help of Phil Wall and Barry Dunn, the Children In Need Day has become a mainstay of the club.

This year it was overseen by Barry Dunn and Phil Wall with Nick Agg Manning on hand to increase the revenues with his entertaining auctioning. The game itself was decided in favour of James Drew, 40 points ahead of Mark Tierney and Alan Pollack, 39 points but the real winners were the club members who managed to amass £1,800 for the charity.

Ladies' Section

With only four clubs and a putter, and playing a greensome stableford off three-eighths combined handicap, teams of two enjoyed a sunny morning of golf.

In first place were Andrea Squire and Lesley Oxenham with 27 points, while second, third and fourth places all scored 26 points. They were Jane Watts and Mona Carter, Tricia Swindell and Henrietta Bradshaw, and Hilda Hoepelman and Anne Davies.

Senior Section

A Texas scramble kept 74 seniors off the streets. Played in pairs these competitions are always decided by fractions of a stroke.

Bob Bilyard and Derek Herrington secured first place with a net 66 just 0.25 of a stroke ahead of Andy Sharland and Ron Jones. In third place were Vic Wood and Larry Halliwell followed by Pat Purtell and Chris Chalker, and Mike Watts and Brian Hoepelman.

FIRST WITH THE SPORT

HONITON NETBALL

WITH 10 games played and five more to go, the netball league is taking a mid-season break in the hope of avoiding the worst of the winter weather.

The break comes with the top team in each division undefeated – Flamingos in division one and the Weather Girls in division two – and each with a hefty seven point advantage at the top!

Division One

OPG 18 Flamingos 39; Wasps 16 Hi Q 15; Uplowman 32 Bo-Peeps 23

Flamingos rounded off the first part of the season when they comfortably defeated their rivals OPG with a fine 39-18 win, a victory that denied OPG even the comfort of a point.

With Karen Hall once again playing well, the Flamingos were soon in the pink and led 21-10 at half-time.

Although Tracy Moran worked hard for OPG, they could not get back into the game and this defeat left them with a lot to do to retain their title.

Hi Q came close to their first win of the campaign against a Wasps side who have had their ups and downs this season.

Hi Q started the game strongly winning the first quarter 6-3. In a low scoring game it went goal for goal in the second period with Hi Q still three goals in front at 9-6 at half-time.

The third quarter saw Wasps pull level with some good play from Teresa Bonner. The fourth was also an even quarter with Emma Truscott working well for Hi Q, but Wasps had a sting in their tail to win by 16-15.

Mid-table Uplowman met relegation rivals Bo-Peeps for the second time, and this time the honours went to Uplowman, avenging their defeat in October.

It was a close contest with Poppy Williams the Peeps' pick, and Julie Heal the Uplowman star in their 32-23 victory.

AXE CLIFF GOLF

Jack takes on the wind to amass an excellent 27

IN extremely blustery conditions, 38 seniors contested the November Stableford.

Unsurprisingly, only one player managed to equal par and that was the winner Jack Bannister (26) with an excellent 37 points.

Two players netted 35 points with second place going on countback to Nick Povey (21), who finished magnificently with a par 4 at the 17th, after missing from six feet for a birdie, and then capped it all with a superb birdie 2 at the last.

Tony Horton (25) was the other competitor to amass 35 points and had to settle for third place.

There were two 2s in all. In addition to that from Nick Povey, the captain, Peter Knighting, bagged the other one.

Ladies' Section

Before the annual meeting of the Ladies' Section, the ladies competed for a nine-hole stableford in cold but sunny weather. The winner with 19 points was Di Rogers (31) and in second place Bee Sammons (36) with 18.

Main Club

The November stableford was played for and the winner of Division One was Theo Boalch (12) with 37 points.

Second place went to Peter Petherbridge (12) with 35 points and in third place was Gareth Richardson with 34 points.

Second Division winner was John Collins (16) with 37 points. Anthony Chadwick (13) was second with 36 points and in third place was Peter Smith with 35.

SHORT MAT BOWLS

IT was all home wins in the Evening games this week. Colyton had a 7-1 and a 57 shot margin while Upottery gained the edge by 5-3. Five games were won by a single shot and one by just two shots after an extra end.

In division 2 Awliscombe B and Sidbury each won 7-1, the latter moving up to second place.

In the Afternoon League, the winners were Beer, 6-2, and Sidford A, 5-3, the latter gaining four places as a result of their two extra points.

Colyton improved on their Evening League colleagues, winning 7-1 at home with a 58-shot margin; also winning at home were Musbury A and Seaton Cliff C, 8-0. Just one draw this week, Seaton Cliff D gaining a point at Hem-yock against the A team.

In the knockout, Hem-yock, although losing 4-2, move on to the next round with a 7-5 margin and will now take on Awliscombe.

OTTERY CRICKETS HOCKEY

IT was a great week for Ottery Crickets ladies, with both teams winning their matches and moving up the table.

The Firsts beat ECVH Seconds 3-1 at home, in a match that took a little while to get into, but by the second half the Crickets took possession and had a lot of chances to score.

Karen Dutton was given a lot of space in the circle to convert a quick pass into a goal, but the fighting Hornets equalised before half time.

Crickets went out strong in the second half, and converted two slick short corners, with a well rehearsed passing move to Jess Williams resulting in the first goal. Rachael Down deflected the ball in off the left post for the second, with a football style celebration back to the centre.

Annabelle Clay made a fantastic run from the halfway line into the circle in the dying minutes and crossed to Williams, who shot just wide of the post.

The Ladies' Seconds won their away fixture against Dart Seconds 2-1, and the Men's Firsts drew 2-2 with ECVH at home.

The Ladies' Firsts move up to third, and the Seconds up to fourth in their respective leagues, with only one more game to go before the Christmas break.

CARLSBERG SOUTH WEST PENINSULA

Okey score three quick goals for win

Division One (East)
Axminster Town 1
Okehampton Argyle 5

UNTIL the hour mark there was very little in this game as a resolute Axminster side were trailing by just a single goal scored by Dave Youlden in the 14th minute.

The Tigers were battling hard to stay in the game but Okey rattled in three quick goals, two scored by Will Hawkins, to put the result beyond doubt.

Jamie Chamberlain struck a consolation goal for Axminster in the 85th minute.

Liverton United 5
Ottery St Mary 0

Ottery were brushed aside and stay rooted to the bottom of the league following this decisive defeat.

The league's reigning champions were a class apart and once they made the breakthrough in the 25th minute there was only going to be one outcome.

FRESHA DEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

Honiton's winning ways continue with Clyst win

HONITON Town's revival continued as they beat Broadclyst 1-0 to climb out of the bottom three of Division Two for the first time this season.

It was their second win of the season after breaking their duck against Pinhoe the previous week, and shows that new manager Gary Osbourne is beginning to turn around the fortunes of the team.

"That's five games unbeaten now, another clean sheet and back-to-back wins," said a delighted Osbourne.

"We have a settled team, confidence is growing and while it is still early days and there is much hard work to be done I feel we have turned the corner."

The decisive goal came on the hour after midfielder Mark Bowles was brought down from behind in the box and striker Sam Farmer calmly slotted in the spot kick.

Teenager Dale Davison was outstanding at right-back and named man-of-the-match by Osbourne.

Also in Division Two, Chard Town Reserves were held to a goalless draw by Colyton. Dan Cleal did get the ball in the net but his effort was ruled out for offside while Colyton defeated resolutely.

"Full credit to Colyton. They battled well to earn the draw, but it's definitely points dropped for us," said Chard boss Darren Stewart.

"Yes, we played well in patches but we have to start being more ruthless in the final third. So that's what we will be doing in training this week."

In the Premier Division, leaders Seaton Town have been unbeaten since losing the opening game of the season at Barnstaple. On Saturday they avenged that defeat in style with a 5-1 hammering of the same opponents, who had started the day in third place.

Ben Ede hit a superb hat-trick with Josh French and Cameron Vere completing the scoring.

Also in the Premier, Beer Albion had a terrific 1-0 win at the University with Pedro Fontes's brilliant strike in the final minute proving decisive.

Chris Long had earlier gone close to breaking the deadlock while impressive Beer keeper Steve Jones made one outstanding save.

"That was some of the best football we have played for a long time," said Beer boss Phil Crabbe.

Feniton bounced back from defeat at Tipton St John the previous week to hammer Sidbury United 6-0 with two goals apiece for Kieran Johnston and Andy Hawkin. Charlie Selley and Alex Frankpitt, with his first goal in two years, completed the scoring.

"It was important that we bounced back straightaway, and the lads did just that," said Feniton manager Mark Kingdon.

Tipton St John were held to a 1-1 draw by Heavitree Social Club with Neil Goodings scoring.

In Division Five promotion hopefuls Axmouth United found Beer Albion Reserves keeper Mike Westlake in inspired form as they were held to a 1-1 draw.

In Division Six Awliscombe fought back from conceding two early goals to draw 3-3 at Westex Rovers Reserves.

Richard Tenant and Ben Gay got the score back to 2-2 before Westex scored again and it took a brilliant last minute strike from Pete Nelson, scoring direct from a corner, to salvage a point.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

United implode in the final minutes

HAWKCHURCH United twice threw away a three-goal advantage to miss a golden chance to reach the final of the John Fowler Cup.

Within five minutes Hawkchurch were 2-0 ahead with goals from Mark Herrod and Ollie Pearce and when Jon Legg made it 3-0 the home side seemed to have one foot in the final.

Even when Waytown Hounds grabbed a lifeline, skipper Simon Harding restored the advantage with a terrific strike on the hour.

But then inexplicably Hawkchurch imploded, conceding five goals in the final 30 minutes for a shock 6-4 defeat.

"I felt at half-time that we panicked and even though they are a good team we threw it away," groaned Hawkchurch manager Joe Carter.

"That was a big game for us and a great chance to reach the final so it was very disappointing but we have to move on and learn from it."

For Waytown Hounds, Tony Menaldino scored a hat-trick, Matt Read added a double and Lee Hansford completed a remarkable comeback. In the Daisy Hutchings Cup, Crewkerne

Rangers claimed their first win since the opening week of the season as they overcame Thorncombe 3-2.

It took a terrific comeback to secure victory with goals from brothers Jack and Tom Fussell and a Phil Denslow penalty all coming in the last 20 minutes to wipe out Thorncombe's 2-0 advantage.

Waytown will face Luso-Chard in the final after they beat Millway Rise Reserves 3-2 with goals from Bruno Ferreira, Igor Costa and Rui Rodriguez. The top two teams in Division Three both won with leaders Chard United winning 3-1 at Shepton Beauchamp Reserves and West and Middle Chinnock Reserves thumping Drimpton 9-4. Ash Cooper led the way with two goals while there were further goals for Craig Gosney, Darren Whitmarsh, Wayne Glentworth, Jack Stevens, Danny Rudge, Lloyd Tucker and player-manager Kevin Lacey, his first success in two years.

"It is hard to believe but it is always nice to score," said Lacey.

In the Premier Division, Winsham climbed to second with a 3-1 win at Merriott Rovers, thanks to two goals apiece for Joe Simmons and Tom Stead.

"Lyne Regis are doing well but the league is going to be a bit closer this season," said Winsham boss Phil Loeving. "I would be happy with a top-four finish in our first season in the division."

Lyne stayed top after beating potential rivals Beaminster 2-1 while reigning champions South Petherton claimed a much-needed win with a 4-1 success at bottom club Perry Street with goals from Lee Holt, Rich Hebdith, Adam Bourne and Jason Behan.

DIVISION ONE CUP – MILLWEY RISE v LYME REGIS RESERVES

◆ ACTION from Millwey Rise's semi-final against Lyme Regis Reserves. Millwey strolled to an 8-1 victory

MILLWEY Rise FC Under-13 took on Honiton for the third time this season.

The previous matches had finished 16-0 and 15-0 to Honiton.

Millwey started well but were put under pressure by Honiton who had the wind behind them.

It took 20 minutes before Honiton scored from the penalty spot after the ball was handled on the line.

Honiton continued with the pressure and scored three more times in the first half.

Millwey came out after the break and closed Honiton down. They were rewarded with a goal from debutant Lee Cambridge.

Honiton replied virtually straight away and in the last 10 minutes added a further four goals to make the final score 9-1. The Honiton manager said he could see how much Millwey have improved each time they played them. Millwey Rise FC Under-10 Blues fought out a 1-1 draw with Feniton.

Feniton beat the Blues last time 5-1 but this time they came up against a much improved side.

In a tight first half, Feniton held a 1-0 lead, but the second half belonged to the Blues and Zak Featherstone equalised with a cracking strike.

The Blues had more chances to win the game but some fine keeping from the Feniton goalie kept the score level.

Millwey Rise Under-10 Purples had the ball in the back of Perry Street's net after five seconds when Chris Watson scored his 13th goal of the season.

Millwey held out to the lead until the second half when Street scored from open play twice and then were awarded a penalty to seal the win.

UNDER-13s FOOTBALL

Seaton A U-13 12
Axminster U-13 2

SEATON A were fabulous and played a brilliant game of football.

The play throughout was excellent with great communication and passing.

Lewis Cottam was fantastic as stand-in goalie as the regular keeper was injured. The play throughout from defence to forward showed a great determination. Ollie Binion is a great captain and ensured that the flow never stopped.

Goal scorers came from every position. Max Richardson scored four Ollie Brown one, Ollie Caute three Micah Woodland two, Lewis Gibbons one and Ollie Binion one.

The Seaton boys have all mixed well this season as two age groups have joined and this friendship and tear play shows.

Two hat-tricks as striker insists promotion is key

Division One Cup Semi-Final
 Millwey Rise 8
 Lyme Regis Reserves 1

STAR striker Terry Emmett insisted that promotion remains the priority for Millwey Rise despite cruising into the final of the Division One Cup.

Emmett hit a hat-trick, as did Ben Turner with Sam Dibling adding two more in a comprehensive victory that earned Shane Featherstone's men a place in the final against Forton Rangers.

"Obviously the main thing for us is to win promotion into the Premier Division and anything else is a bonus," said Emmett.

"Everyone played well on Saturday and Ben also hit a great hat-trick."

"I thought it would be tougher and to win 8-1 was a surprise but we got an early goal and went on from there."

Emmett's hat-trick ended a mini three-game barren spell and helped to maintain Millwey's unbeaten start to the season with an unblemished record in the league and all cup competitions.

"There is a good buzz about the place," added Emmett. "The set-up is really good here."

Forton needed extra time before finally overcoming Barrington 2-1.

Former Forton player Ben Deverall fired Barrington into the lead before Andy Stevenson equalised to send the game into extra time.

Lee Richardson missed a penalty, crashing his shot against the crossbar, before making amends by scoring the winner.
